BEST THAI MANGO IN THE WORLD ON A STICK

The mango NDM is rich in B vitamins (B1, B2, B5, B6, B9), vitamins A, C, and D. Contains various minerals - zinc, manganese, iron, and phosphorus. In the production only natural mango fruits are used, without sugar. Special technology in fruit processing and freezing allows you to save up to 95% of vitamins and minerals. Mango is also considered a natural antidepressant. Regular consumption of mango helps relieve nervous tension, improve mood and prevent the risk of depression. Mango contains substances that regulate the metabolic rate in the body, accelerate the excretion of fluid, and are powerful antioxidants.
